

Mutualisation and internationalisation of the medieval history offer in Strasbourg, Freiburg and Basel

Project partners	 Tri-national course in Sélestat
Universities of Strasbourg, Freiburg and Basel
Project duration / Awarded funding
01.05.2018 – 01.11.2019 / 30.000 €
Short description of the project
The partners of the project aim at close collaboration between the offers of training and existing masters courses in medieval studies. This includes providing students from all three sites with joint seminars and tutorials to improve their language skills.
Concrete implementation of the project
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recruitment of project coordinators at each site who also acted as language tutors • Tri-national seminar (Strasbourg 11/2018) with students in mixed groups • Working sessions on the collection of manuscripts and incunabula of the Bibliothèque Humaniste of Sélestat (04/2019) • Visit to the Historical Museum (Basel); visit to the Musée de l'œuvre de Notre-Dame (Strasbourg); series of lectures as part of the Master of Medieval Studies in Strasbourg.
Project results and continuation of collaboration
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Leveraging a uniquely rich offer of training in medieval studies through the federation of medievalists of the three sites • Valorisation of the intellectual resources and cultural heritage of the Rhine region • Consolidation of the partnership with cultural institutions of the Rhine • Creation of an annual trinational interdisciplinary seminar • Promotion of existing master's programmes and the learning of French and German • Extremely difficult to pool training offers in the long term because of structural (university calendars) and linguistic difficulties.
Further information
Website of the Master of Interdisciplinary Medieval Studies in Strasbourg
Articles (with photos) on the seminars in November 2018 and April 2019	