

[22.12.2020]

Fact-sheet

→ Interdisciplinary and transversal training for doctoral students

University	KIT
Institution	Karlsruhe House of Young Scientists (KHYS)
Link	www.khys.kit.edu
General description of the training offer	Gesamtanzahl Kurse 2021 und Themenkategorien und Formate (Präsenz/Online) In 2021 KHYS will be offering round about 70 further training opportunities for early career researchers covering a wide range of topics from the categories "research and communication", "management" and "career planning". KHYS training offers include courses related to scientific writing, publishing and presenting, third party funding, research data management, time and self-management, project management and leadership as well as career planning and language acquisition – each tailored to the specific needs of doctoral researchers and/or postdocs respectively. Courses will be held either in person or online according to the Corona-related regulations in force at the time.
Available languages	German, partly English
Conditions for participation of Eucor-postgraduates	Fundamentally open except E-Learning courses (due to contract and privacy policy) Depending on course/topic high to very high demand
Admission procedure (step-by-step)	Request via email: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - to weiterbildung@khys.kit.edu - In case there will be free spots available, potential participants will be asked to officially register via the KHYS event calendar.

Contact person	Viola Schroff